

Ashtabula County Sheriff's Office – William R. Niemi, Sheriff

Attorneys' Offices Information/Foreclosures

ATTENTION: AS OF JANUARY 1, 2017 WE WILL NO LONGER REQUIRE A DEPOSIT FOR EACH SALE

Preparing the Confirmation for Filing

1. Print a "Request Tax Form" from the Sheriff's website to get the tax amount. It is highly recommended that this request form be filled out and requested from the Treasurer's office before the date of sale. When printing the "Request Tax Form" you may also view the sale date on the Sheriff's website. Taxes will be pro-rated.
2. Include the cost for recording the Sheriff's Deed at the Recorder's Office. The fee is $34 for the first two pages and $8 for each additional page. Include a self-addressed stamped envelope.
3. Include the Conveyance fee. See below.

Within the Confirmation the fees to be paid out should be listed as follows:

- | | |
|---------|---|
| First: | Payable to the Clerk of Courts... |
| Second: | Payable to the Ashtabula County Treasurer... |
| Third: | Payable to the Ashtabula County Sheriff...$100.00 (flat fee) |
| Fourth: | Payable to the Ashtabula County Auditor... |
| Fifth: | Payable to the Ashtabula County Recorder... |
| Sixth: | Payable to the (lien holders)... |

Preparing the Conveyance Fee Statement

1. The Conveyance Fee Form is available on the Auditor's Office website as well as the Sheriff's Office website. This form must accompany the Sheriff's Deed sent to the Sheriff's Office. Please be aware if the property needs an Exemption form and/or CAUV form, these must also accompany the Sheriff's Deed. These forms are also available on the Auditor's Office website.
2. Conveyance fees are calculated based on $4 per $1,000 of sale price and $.50 per parcel. You may contact Karen at 440-576-3789 at the Auditor's Office for further information on you fees and proper forms.

Preparing the Sheriff's Deed

1. A deed form is available on the Sheriff's website for your use. There is a link available at www.ashtabulacountysheriff.org. Use of this form is necessary to maintain uniformity and compliance to the Sheriff's Deeds. (ORC 2329.36)
2. The completed Deed and Conveyance Fee form (as well as a check for all fees and any other necessary forms) may be mailed or dropped off at the Sheriff's Office.

Reminder on Filing Paperwork

To the Court: You must submit the Order of Confirmation and a copy of the Conveyance Fee Statement (as well as copies of any other necessary forms).

To the Sheriff's Office: You must submit the Conveyance Fee form (as well as any other necessary forms), the Sheriff's Deed and the full amount of monies due.

Remember, if the property has an Exemption or is a CAUV property, the property forms from the Auditor's Office must accompany the Sheriff's Deed.
